For the first time, IFLOS is organising a Summer Academy

“Uses and Protection of the Sea – Legal, Economic and Natural Science Perspectives”

which will take place at the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (ITLOS) from 29 July to 26 August 2007.

If you are interested in further details of the programme please refer to www.iflos.org

The Summer Academy will be an international centre of excellence for studies of both international law of the sea and maritime law and include related topics of economic and natural sciences. It will bring together a prestigious faculty from among the judges of the Tribunal, professors and professionals from the maritime field with a dedicated group of 32 highly-motivated participants from 27 countries. The Foundation has provided a number of participants from developing countries with a scholarship to enable them to attend the Academy.

IFLOS is pleased to announce that two most distinguished members of the faculty, Mr Satya Nandan, Secretary-General, ISA, and Mr Agustín Blanco-Bazán, Senior Deputy Director, IMO, will give public lectures as specified at the front page of this invitation.

We would like to invite you to attend these two public lectures and ask you to return the registration form as soon as possible.
