14th IFLOS Summer Academy 2020

9 August to 4 September 2020

Application for Admission

1 Application

1.1 Self-funding participants

I hereby apply to be admitted to the IFLOS Summer Academy

as self-funding participant and agree to remit the course fee of € 1,590 to the accounts of the Foundation upon notice of admission.

I am aware that the course fee includes tuition and course materials, weekday lunches, public transport in Hamburg for the duration of the course and a program of extra-curricular events.

I am also aware and agree that transport costs to and from Hamburg, health and other insurances and other living costs are at my own expense and that I have to take care of travel documents and visa procedures.

and also request the Foundation to provide accommodation incl. breakfast (single room with en-suite bathroom) for the duration of the Course at € 1,660, payable with the course fee.

I agree that, otherwise, the Foundation will not provide any assistance as to finding accommodation whatsoever. I also agree that the Foundation neither accepts any obligation vis-à-vis landlords nor guarantees accommodation should it not be available for whatever reason.

1.2 Application for full scholarship

I hereby apply to be admitted to the IFLOS Summer Academy

as participant with a full scholarship, subject to availability and the rules and conditions set by the institutions granting such scholarship. I'm aware that a scholarship covers the course fee and includes accommodation/breakfast.

I'm also aware and agree that transport costs to and from Hamburg, health and other insurances and other living costs are at my own expense and that I have to take care of travel documents and visa procedures.

Should a full scholarship not be available,

I should nevertheless like to attend as a self-funding participant;

And request the foundation to provide accommodation (see above)

1.2.1 Travel grant

Should a full scholarship be awarded,

I also apply for a travel grant. I am aware that travel grants are not an automatic part of a scholarship, strictly reserved for participants from developing countries as per the latest OECD list, that they only cover transport to and from Hamburg from my domicile at the time of application and that transport is booked by the Foundation at its sole discretion.

Should a travel grant not be available, I will organise my own journey and cover travel costs myself.

I declare that I have exhausted all means to cover my travel costs and that, without a travel grant, I will not be able to participate

1.3 Application for Partial scholarship

I hereby apply to be admitted to the IFLOS Summer Academy

as participant with a partial scholarship, subject to availability and the rules and conditions set by the institutions granting such scholarship. I am aware that a partial scholarship covers only the course fee.

I am also aware and agree that transport costs to and from Hamburg, health and other insurances and other living costs are at my own expense and that I have to take care of travel documents and visa procedures.

1.4 Scholarship declaration and statement

I hereby declare, that I have not applied for other funds, have exhausted all other means of financial support and that, without a scholarship, I will not be able to participate.

Please specify below why you personally need financial aid and the steps you have taken to secure alternative funding:
