

Exploring Hamburg

August 5th

Where to meet?

At 09.45 am sharp, we will meet up at the train station “Dammtor”. You can reach it using the S1, S3, S21 or, depending on your timing, sometimes with regional trains (RE/RB). To find the best connection, visit <https://www.hvv.de/en>

From Hood House, you can take the Bus 19 route from the stop on Maria-Louisen-Straße to Bf. Dammtor:

We will meet at the back entrance, which is not the one facing the university, but the one facing the Hotel Radisson Blu, a big tower, you will recognize it.

A bus with a guide will pick us up there and begin the tour. We will be dropped off at Landungsbrücken around lunchtime, where you can take the U3 to the city centre.

Dress code: casual. The weather forecast predicts slightly better and sunny weather, with a maximum temperature of 20 degrees. Either way, be sure to bring some rain protection in case it rains during the day.

Even though this is not part of our official tour or events for the Summer Academy, there will be a Pride demonstration in the city centre starting at 12:00 as a part of Hamburg's Pride Week. A street festival will also occur in the city centre from 11:00 to midnight.
