

Exploring Hamburg

13 August

Where to meet?

At 09.45 am sharp, we will meet up at the train station “Dammtor”. You can reach it using the S31 or, depending on your timing, sometimes with regional trains (RE/RB). To find the best connection, visit <https://www.hvv.de/en>

We will meet on the back entrance, which is not the one facing the university, but the one facing the Hotel Radisson Blu, a big tower, you will recognize it.

A bus with a guide will pick us up there and begin the tour. We will be dropped off at Rathausmarkt right in the city center around lunchtime.

Dresscode: casual. The weather forecast predicts unusual 32° C and sunny weather, so be sure to protect yourself from the sun and bring enough to drink.
