

Lübeck City Tour and Timmendorf Beach

Saturday 12th of August 2023

We will have a beautiful day in the town of Lübeck, a much smaller place than Hamburg, but with fascinating medieval buildings and exciting history. Afterwards, we will go to Timmendorfer Strand, a beautiful beach town on the Baltic Sea. This will be the perfect ending to the second week of the Summer Academy and our last excursion together. Please keep that in mind when we tell you that this, like all other social programme activities, is not mandatory for you to join but is highly recommended.

Details

We will meet at Dammtor train station at 9:00 sharp, at the same place we met up for the city tour, the side of the train station is not facing a big street with traffic lights, but rather the side facing the tall hotel building.

From there, a bus will take us to Lübeck, where we will have a guided walking tour of the city. There will be some time after the tour and before we go on to the beach for you to explore a little on your own, get some lunch, or maybe buy a souvenir.

At approximately 14:00, the bus will then take us to Timmendorfer Strand, where we will just hang out at the beach. If weather and your courage permit, now is the time for you to put on your bathing suit and take a little dip in the Baltic Sea. There are restrooms, a changing room and a little shop to buy snacks and drinks.

We will take the bus back to Hamburg at around 17:00 and should be back in the city around 18:00/18:30. The bus will drop us off at Dammtor train station.

In Short:

- Be at Dammtor train station at 9:00 am
- Bring:
 - o sunscreen
 - o enough to drink
 - o comfortable shoes for a day of walking around
 - o an umbrella or raincoat in case it rains (it is Germany, after all)
 - o swimsuit and towel if you are considering swimming in the sea
- We will be back by approximately 18:00
